

Alaska Packing List for Women

Ladies, to better help you prepare for your Alaska cruise vacation, here are some guidelines on what to pack. Keep in mind that although Alaska is a more "relaxed" destination, your own taste, interests and activities will determine what you bring. Once you have all of your clothing selected and ready to pack, you should consider mixing some of your clothing with your husband's. Should one of your suitcases be lost, one of you will not be totally without. Nothing is worse than you having your cocktail dress and your husband's tux is missing

You will need three types of clothing: casual shipboard attire or day wear, comfortable apparel for sightseeing and evening wear. Properly packed, you should be using two suitcases for a cruise, plus at least one decent sized carry-on. (Airlines allow a roller carry that can go in the overhead storage and one personal bag or knap-sack that must fit below the seat. These four bags should allow you to pack properly and still have a space left to take some souvenirs home. Start packing a week early so you won't forget something.
